How does it work?

Each device runs Exo and joins the local cluster.

1

Find peers

Discover devices on the network

2

Elect a master

Choose a peer to coordinate work

3

Place the model

Use memory and links to select workers

4

Run inference

Workers compute the answer together

The master is one of the devices in the cluster.

It can change when peers join, leave, or lose connectivity.